- An EFL Ticket permits you to occupy at the relevant Match (but not otherwise) the seat indicated on that EFL Ticket (or such other alternative seat as the EFL and/or Ground owner may allocate to you, acting reasonably) and you acknowledge that this seat will be in an area of the Ground designated as neutral by the relevant safety authorities unless stated otherwise on the face of the Ticket and that no club colours will be permitted within that area.

4 Non-transfer of Tickets

- A Ticket is issued for your sole use and you shall not resell or (save as set out in clause 4.3 below) transfer any Ticket to any other person without the prior written consent of the EFL.

does not take place during the course of any business. Any transfer will be subject to the Terms & Conditions of Entry;

- you may not transfer the EFL Tickets under any circumstances and these must be returned to the EFL. Where any EFL Ticket is returned not later than 5 working days prior to the date of the relevant Match you will be entitled to a full refund. Any return made after that date will only be refunded if the EFL is able to re-sell that Ticket.
- All Tickets will remain the property of the EFL at all times and must be produced together with evidence of your identity if required to do so by any official, steward or employee of the EFL, Ground or any police officer. The EFL reserves the right to retain any Ticket at any time.

In the event of any cancellation and withdrawal in accordance with this clause 4.5, no refund shall be payable.
 - The EFL further reserves its right to take any legal action against any appropriate persons as it sees fit in connection with such matters.

Entry into the Ground is confirmation that all persons have consented to such use of their image. If these images should feature an individual prominently the Club will make reasonable efforts to gain the consent of that person before publishing such images, however, if this is not possible, then entry into the Ground shall be deemed consent unless the Club is notified in writing to the contrary.

9 Exclusion of Liability
